SAYS BOTH FIRES WERE INCENDIARY

FIRE CHIEF FOUND KEROSENE CAN AND OIL SOAKED RAGS

AT HOME OF JOHN PORTER

Two Early Morning Blazes Cause Estimated Damage Of $2500—Insurance Was $2000

Two fires at the home of John Porter, 1022 East Second street, early this morning caused an estimated damage of $2500.

Both fires were incendiary, according to Burt M. Rowley, fire chief.

The first alarm was turned in about 2 o'clock this morning. When the fire department arrived at the house, a conflagation was discovered in a room upstairs. In one corner of the room was a kerosene can, a quantity of rags soaked in oil, and a clock nearby. The fire was soon extinguished, all the windows of the house lowered, and the firemen returned to town.

About 4 o'clock another alarm was turned in. When the firement returned to the house the second time, the entire upper floor was in flames. When entrance was gained to the house, it was found that a window had been raised and the fire started from another part of the house. The firemen were unable to extinguish the flames before great damage had been done to the upper floor of the house. The plastering in some of the rooms on the first floor also was considerably damaged.

The fire at 2 o'clock was discovered by Lewis Liston when he was returning home from work. Liston turned in the first alarm. The fire department was notified by a telephone operator of the second blaze.

No one occupied the house at the time both fires broke out. Yesterday, a trunk and some household furniture belonging to the Porters was taken from the house.

Last October, Porter took out $1500 of insurance on the house and $500 on the contents.

Jack McGill to Meet Mervin Barackman

Here on July 4—Will Precede Eustace-Martinson Match—Makes Two Big Wrestling Bills

Jack McGill, a middleweight wrestler of Wisner, Neb., has been signed to meet Mervin Barackman, the local wrestler, in a finish match here July 4.

The Nebraskan is a brother of the famous Pat McGill, well-known heavyweight. He is a cousin of Tom, John and Mike Kane of Maryville.

Two years ago, he met Mervin Barackman in Western Nebraska and defeated him. This is the last match Barackman has lost. Sport writers claim that McGill is one of the greatest midleweights in the wrestling game today. He has met a number of top-notchers and has held his own with everyone of them.

On the other hand, Barackman is probably among the leading four middleweights of Missouri. He has not lost a match in two years, his last defeat being at the hands of Jack McGill. He has wrestled in Maryville three times in the last two months and has gained decisive victories every time.

The Barackman-McGill bout will precede the Eustace-Martinosn match at the fairgrounds July 4. This makes two high-class mat contests that will be staged here that day, under the auspices of the American Legion.

Up to press time this afternoon about 250 tickets had been sold to the Fourth of July wrestling bout at the fairgrounds here. A goodly portion of the tickets were sold to women. About half of the tickets sold were for ringside seats.

High-Powered Storm Cloud Passes Over

A storm cloud, traveling at an unusually high speed and showing all the earmarks of a cyclone, passed over Maryville and Nodaway County about 6:30 o'clock last night, rocking tree tops in its path and uprooting some trees in places. However, no damage has been reported but many persons from different parts of the county noticed the funnel-shaped, boiling cloud, which traveled toward the southeast at such a fast rate. In some places it was traveling lower than others. At the W. T. Osborne farm northwest of Maryville it blew down and uprooted four maple trees.

The rainfall here was .08 of an inch and temperature went down to 58 last night.

EXCEPTIONS MAY BE FILED IN ROAD CASE

NO DAMAGE REPORT IN CONDEMNATION PROCEEDINGS

1ST CASE OF ITS KIND

In Nodaway County—May Be Other Similar Ones—Proceedings Against 4 On Bur. Jct Road

Exceptions will be filed, it was said today, to the report of the commissioners who assess no damages to the property owners in the condemnation proceedings brought by the State Highway Commission through the County Court to obtain right-of-way for a state highway, located near Burlington Junction. The report of the commissioners was filed Tuesday and the property owners mentioned in the proceedings has ten days to file their exceptions.

This is the first case of its kind by the State Highway Commission in this county. It has been rumored that there are to be other cases of this kind and that some of them will be governed by the decision of the circuit court in this case.

The proceedings were against S. H. Williams, Ernest Boyer, Grace Woods and Mary Scott. The new state highway will take .45 of an acre from Williams, 3.58 acres from Boyer, 1.82 acres from Grace Woods and .91 of an acre from Mary Scott.

In their report, the commissioners said they took into consideration the benefits of the new state highway to be derived by owners as well as the damages sustained.

The commissioners appointed by the circuit court for this case were W. C. Pierce of this city, Dr. E. W. Bishop of Ravenwood and Thomas E. Fleming of Graham. The commissioners refused to put in a bill for their services.

Will Send Many Bass Fish to Stock Lake

State Fish and Game Department to Make Shipment to Maryville This Fall.

A. E. Schumacher has just received a communication from the state game and fish department saying that a large number of bass fish would be shipped to Maryville this fall to stock the Gray lake, two miles southeast of town.

This will provide one of the largest bass fishing places in Northwest Missouri. The fish will be kept in the lake two years before fishing will be allowed there.

The bringing of the bass fish here was at the instance of a local fish and game club consisting of fourteen members. These members use the Gray lake for fishing and duck shooting. They will be in charge of the preservation of the bass fish to be brought here.

The game and fish department thought that it would be best to wait until fall to send the fish on account of the danger of hot weather. The bass will be sent in special containers, probably from St. Louis, where a hachery is maintained. A special cooled and ventilated car is used in shipping the bass over the state.

UNION MEETING ON BAPTIST LAWN

WAS DECIDED AT MEETING HELD THIS MORNING

1ST MEETING PATRIOTIC

Old-fashioned Songfest a Feature For Sunday Night—Committees Are Appointed

The first of the union services of the Protestant churches of Maryville will be held Sunday night on the lawn of the First Baptist Church. This was decided this morning by the laymen's committee at a meeting after inspecting different places suggested for holding the outdoor services.

The services for Sunday night will be patriotic. A feature of the evening will be the singing of old fashioned and old-time songs. There will be a chorus composed of talent from every church, led by L. A. Richman. C. D. Kutschinski expects to have a combined orchestra as soon as possible. It is the plan of those in charge that the speaker of the evening will not be announced in advance of the services. The collections taken at these services will go into a general fund of the Ministerial Alliance to defray the expenses of the union services. The following general committee has been appointed to look after the general arrangements for the union services during July and August: Hal Hooker, chairman; Roland Wray, R. C. Seals, W. L. Rhodes and C. D. Allen. Each member of this committee is chairman of other committees charged with some specific phase of the work. C. D. Allen is in charge of publicity, R. C. Seals, of ushers, Roland Wray, of seating and lighting, Miss Emma Hull, decorations, and L. A. Richman and C. D. Kutschinski of music.

In case of rain the meeting will be held in the Baptist Church.

Vochuska Was Easily Defeated Last Night

First Fall Came In 10 Minutes and 30 Seconds; Second In 9 Minutes and 20 Seconds

Otto Vochuska, so called "middleweight champion of Iowa," was no match for Mervin Barackman in their finish match at the Armory last night. Barackman won the first fall with a body scissors and arm lock in 10 minutes and 30 seconds; he obtained the second with a combination body scissors, arm and wrist lock in 9 minutes and 20 seconds.

It was a Barackman match all the way; not a single time did the Iowan have the advantage and not a single time was he on the offensive. The wrestler with Barlow's Big City Shows was outclassed in every department of the mat melee. Time and again he tried to hold the famous Lewis headlock but Barackman would easily extricate himself and Vochuska was powerless.

In a one fall preliminary, Harold Roelofson succeeded in dumping Ralph Lahr in 2 minutes and 50 seconds. The winning hold was an arm and wrist lock.

Dr. D. J. Thomas was the referee of both matches. Despite the grumblings of one Mr. Vochuska, Dr. Thomas showed thorough competency in handling any mat game, and all the wrestling fans were well pleased with his work. To show his fairness several time the referee gave Vochuska the benefit of the doubt when it looked as if his shoulders were pinned squarely to the mat. After the match, Barackman complimented the work of Dr. Thomas in handling the match.

Want Snodgrass to Hold Special Meetings

The Rev. R. E. Snodgrass has received a number of opportunities to hold special meetings at churches in Missouri, Nebraska, Kentucky and Kansas.

The Jackson Avenue Christian Church of Kansas City has written the Reverend Mr. Snodgrass desiring him to hold a meeting there during the month of November. The Christian Church of Pittsburg, Kan., also wishes him to conduct a meeting in October. There are about 3000 members of the Pittsburg church. He has also been offered a pastorate at Falls City, Neb.

The Reverend Mr. Snodgrass will conduct a special meeting in Lexington, Ky., in September.

2 Air Daredevils Mangled in Crash

Plane Collapsed Over Denver Residence Section When Wing Broke in Looping

Denver, June 28—Bert Cole, daredevil air flier, and George Lawley, parachute jumper, are dead today as the rseult of a collapse of an airplane in which they are looping the loop 3,000 feet in the air. Both bodies were horribly mangled and the force with which the machine hit the earth drove a curb stone twelve inches into the ground.

The accident happened over the residence section of the city and was due to the breaking off of the right wing of the plane under the strain of looping.

With the Basford Cigar Company

John Stevenin Has Accepted Position As Cigar Maker and Will Become Member Of the Band

Mr. and Mrs. John Stevenin of Kansas City moved here yesterday, Mr. Stevenin having accepted a position as cigar maker at the Basford Cigar Co. Stevenin is also a good musician and will become a member of the Maryville band, being a player of the clarinet. He has played in several big bands.

Ads are appearing in the musical papers over the country for more musicians for the Maryville band. There are a few instruments which are not represented in the band.

Paul J. Basford, head of the Basford Cigar Co., reports that the cigar business is improving and that it has become necessary to enlarge his force. Mr. Basford says:

"The growing tendency is for people to smoke 10 cent cigars. There are marked signs of prosperity. The El Retina is growing in popularity and I have been compelled to add new men to take care of this business."

It's Time for Fido to Pay His Poll Tax

Fido's poll tax is due. It will cost his master $3 to discharge this obligation to the city and it so happens that this form of poll tax can't be worked out on the street.

Chief of Police Harve England started yesterday reminding the delinquent dog owners that the tax is due. According to the ordinance it was due June 1. A receipt in the shape of a tag, is given to Fido and he is required to wear it appended to his collar at all times.

The ordinance also provides for capital punishment to be assessed for failure to pay the tax. Chief England said this morning that he would like to have every dog owner have the $3 on the shelf waiting for him when he came. The tax is payable either to the chief or the city clerk at the city hall.

Half Minute Interviews

* * * * * * * * * * *

Today's question was: "What civic improvements do Maryville need most?"

J. R. Lowry, Hardware and implement dealer: "I would say that Maryville needs more paving and I am in favor of a community building. I believe the most equitable way of defraying the cost is to vote bonds."

Fred R. Wolfers, Gillam-Jackson Loan and Trust Company: "The most needed improvement in Maryville now is paving. Next to that I would say some sort of a community building. In my opinion the bulk of the paving expense should be borne by the property owners, but the city should pay part. Although hard to do, I believe public subscription should defray the cost of a community building."

W. A. Miller, shoe dealer: "Maryville needs a public playground or park. We in Maryville don't realize the need of a park. An outdoor auditorium should be combined with the park. I think we should condemn property for a location and vote a bond issue. St. Joseph has awakened to the necessity of beautifying the city and we should do the same. I would like to see the paving proposal go through. The city should defray a third of the cost."

F. P. Reuillard, wholesale baker: "I should say that pavement is needed badly. Eighteen or twenty years ago Maryville prided itself on being the best paved of any town three times its size in the Middlewest. But today we are fifteen years behind the times. I think the property owners should defray the cost and the city pay for paving the intersections."

PRESS CRITICISES OKLA. GOVERNOR

BUT WALTON STILL KEEPS TROOPS ON THE "FRONT"

CITIZENS ARE ENRAGED

No Demonstration Against Troops To "Suppress Lawlessness" But Much Ill Feeling Exists

Oklahoma City, June 28—Although under fire of scorching criticism by editorals in the morning papers, "Commander-in-chief" Jack Walton, governor of Oklahoma, today maintained communication with the officers of the national guard at the "front" in Oklahoma County where tents have been pitched to "rid the county of menacing mob rule."

Wading into a pile of papers on his desk, "Governor Jack" rolled up his sleeve, filled his favorite pipe and set to work today upon other duties, but received and read with interest, several communications from the front.

The executive declared that he was in the fight to a finish to stamp out mob violence of all kinds, not simply in isolated cases, and if the country forces were inadequate, he would leave the military there—if it took three years.

Things were reported quiet at Okmulgee whence all but a small detachment of national guardsmen had been withdrawn. The "red" sign of some sarcastic citizen floated over the door of the jail. No demonstrations were made against the soldiers although most of the citizens were known to have been "hot under the collar," about them being sent there.

Conception Junction Had Largest Meeting

At Health Conference Held in School Building There Yesterday—Thirty-five Were Examined

Thirty-five persons, consisting of infants and pre-school children, were examined by the officers of the Nodaway County Health Department at Conception Junction yesterday.

About twenty infants were examined. All examined were up to weight and a fine group of children, Dr. C. P. Fryer said this morning.

This health conference was the largest attended of any held in the County this year. The health department officials said. There is a great deal of interest manifested there in the health conference work.

Yesterday's meeting was held in the school building. Miss Mabel Merrigan is chairman of the work in Conception Junction and was very active in getting the mothers to bring their children to the conference. It is expected that there will be a large attendance July 18 which is the date of the next conference at Conception Junction.

A conference will be held tomorrow afternoon at Hopkins. A large attendance is expected there as this is the fourth conference to be held at Hopkins.

Harding Criticises The Hague Tribunal

Pocatello, Idaho, June 28—President Harding came into the home state of Senator William E. Borah today with a stirring appeal for his world court proposal.

Addressing an audience of several thousand people from the rear platform of his train here the President, for the first time, spoke strongly against the arbitration of international disputes and urged settlement of such disputes by an international court such as he had proposed. This was the first time that Harding has ever openly criticized the Hague tribunal.

WON'T SEIZE SHIPS THAT BRING LIQUOR

RUMOR THAT CAPTAINS WILL BE ARRESTED, REPUDIATED

OFFICIALS ARE WORRIED

Over The Continuous Arrival Of Foreign Vessels At U. S. Ports With Beverages

Washington, June 28—Aroused by the publication of unauthorized statements that the government contemplates the seizure of foreign ships carrying liquor into American ports, acting Secretary of the Treasury, S. Parker Gilbert, called upon Prohibition Commissioner Roy A. Haynes to explain why these false reports were circulated and announced flatly that no change in the present policies of Treasury Department in enforcement was contemplated.

Washington, June 28.—A series of proposals, originating with prohibition officials, that foreign ships bringing liquor into American ports should be seized and the captains of the vessels arrested, caused considerable agitation in diplomatic circles here today and threatened to stir up a row between the State and Treasury Departments.

It was officially announced at the Treasurey Department, however, that seizures are not contemplated and that such a step is not being given any consideration.

Secretary of State, C. E. Hughes, was beseiged with inquiries from the diplomats of countries, whose ships would be affected by such action. His answers to such questions were that the government has laid no decisions beyond the orders to seize the liquors which are brought in above the reasonable amount for medicinal use.

Secretary Hughes previously had conferred with Acting Secretary of the Treasury Gilbert. Gilbert informed Secretary Hughes that the Treasury Department had not altered the plans of Secretary Mellon in any way. Gilbert did inform the Secretary that the Treasury Department is worried by the continued arrival of ships with beverages from Europe.

R. R. Seek Increase in Oil Freight Rates

Washington, June 28—Pending an investigation the Interstate Commerce Commission today ordered certain western railroads to suspend until October 29 the proposed increase in the freight rate on crude fuel and oil and gas from production points in Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma to points in Western Nebraska and South Dakota.

The present rate is 54c a hundred and it was proposed to increase it to $1.02 from Kansas production points and $1.06 from Oklahoma production points.

8 Women Threaten to Tar and Feather

Uniontown, Pa., June 29—The little town of Chrystal Works, near here was bubbling over with excitement today as constables proceeded to serve warrants charging surity of the peace upon eight women, mostly married, who are charged by Mrs. Pearl Graham, 40, with having visited her home last night and threatened to tar and feather her if she did not leave town tonight.

Recently Mrs. Graham was arrested on a statutory charge in which she had figured as one of two women in a human triangle. She was lodged in jail here but released on bail a few days later.

Any man whose heart
Is in his work
Never has time to
Watch the clock's hands.

Isn't it strange how many reasons we can think of to explain why we have not done what we should have done?

It too often happens that friendship ends when love starts, a cynical bachelor observed to us the other day.

We read the other day that the chorus girls in a new musical comedy are to wear monacles. Well that is better than nothing at all.

We used to hear girls say they "could die dancing." From what we read in the papers a lot of girls over the country are trying to do it.

Our friend Irvin Cobb once remarked that when a man reached under his coat tail it was either a threat or a promise.

The meek may inherit the earth but to date they don't seem to be collecting much of their inheritance.

Uncle Abner the town philosopher, says to say "I did it yesterday" is a better motto than to say "do it today."

A girl met a friend in from of a store the other day and said "You know I am to be married next week and I am terribly nervous." "Why" replied her friend" are you afraid the poor boob will get away at the last minute?"

A friend of ours who runs a little neighborhood grocery store was interviewing a prospective clerk the other day, "Do you have a cash register?" he asked. "Yes," replied our grocer friend. "Well I can't work for $20 a week in that case," was his answer.

Louise, the stenographer, says she has found that the best way to get things coming your way is to go after them.

Too many of us find it easier to run up a bill than to run down one and settle it.

The Christmas savings started by many people in the local banks at ten cents a week are now getting to such proportions as to pinch the pocket books and to make the holders wish the big holiday was near.

Instead of using dad's big car a lot of youths are buying flivvers of their own salesmen tell us. This does away with asking parental permission every time a sheik wants to stage a petting party.

Vagrant Musings

All some women need to do to have a good time is to shut themselves in their rooms and have a good cry.

Too many of us are anxious to get most everything else but busy.

What is needed is for rich men to find out how the poor men live and for the poor men to find out how the rich men work.

It often happens that the man who fights and runs away must run a lot faster than the other fellow.

We should rather think that there is a lot of good in every bad man than to think there is a lot of bad in every good man.

Should Public Bonds Be Exempted From Tax?

By Samuel Adams

It is proposed that all bonds, municipal, state, county and federal, which are now tax exempt, shall be subject to taxation. A constitutional amendment to accomplish this was introduced in the last Congress and it will be reintroduced and the subject will have a great deal of consideration in the new Congress which convenes in December.

Yes

1. Exemption of bonds enables the government to sell bonds at a slightly lower rate of interest and more nearly at par. We are constantly criticizing the government for being extravagant and since exemption of public bonds from taxation permits a saving in costs of public improvements, it should be continued.

2. Taxation of bonds, which means a higher cost of public improvement, would prevent many needed public improvements from being undertaken, particularly by state, counties and municipalities. Schools, parks highways, etc., and other municipal needs, which are non-productive and do not bring in a revenue but are much needed by the community, will be sidetracked or postponed with a higher rate of interest on bonds.

3. Taxation of bonds, with the higher cost resulting, would prevent many municipalities from purchasing public utilities that are revenue producing, such as street railways, gas and electric light plants, etc., the net income from which would help to keep down the tax rate.

4. There are probably thirty billion dollars worth of public bonds exempt or partially exempt now outstanding, mostly federal, state and municipal, and chiefly in the well developed and wealthiest sections of the country. Taxation of public bonds will discriminate against the issue of bonds in poorer sections where the value of property today is low, and the higher cost will make it much more difficult for these poorer sections, where improvements are greatly needed, to get them.

5. The argument that rich tax dodgers invest in tax exempt bonds is not a valid objection to tax exempt bonds, since the government can tax inheritances which are not subject to tax exemption and reach any tax slackers or evaders. The government saves more than the investors in tax exempt securities and the best way to prevent such recourse to tax exempt securities is to reduce taxes on profits from legitimate businesses.

6. Exemption of public securities from taxation is not preventing large investments in corportion securities. Dr. David Friday, formerly in the Treasury Department and a noted economist, states that out of $8,800,000,000 capital accumulation in 1921, $3,200,000,000 was invested in corporation securities which are taxable and only $1,300,000,000 in state, municipal and U. S. tax exempt government securities which included some refunding of public debts.

7. The government can levy a heavier inheritance tax on tax exempt securities than on those not exempt.

8. Public utility corporations are strongly urging an end of tax exemption for public bonds on the ground that it is giving an unfair advantage to municipalities in competing with private enterprise.

The representative of the United Gas Improvement Company, of Philadelphia pleading for taxation of public bonds before the House Ways and Means Committee, stated: "You are going to cause a municipalization of the public utilities whether you like it or not, because under the present economic condition, there is no other answer to it." Representatives of many large corporations are urging taxation of public bonds, because they want to keep up the enormous profits they have been making through private operation of public utilities by preventing municipal ownership and operation of such public utilities.

No

1. The exemption of public bonds from taxation has led to extravagant and needless government expenditures. Government business, like ordinary businesses, should be conducted on business principles. Municipal undertakings should compete on the same basis as private businesses of the same nature, for if they do not, the taxpayers make up the difference in the tax rate. England's excellent financial system taxes public bonds, and so far as possible, public enterprises pay as they go.

2. Tax exemption for public bonds is an incentive to paying for public needs by bond issues when they should be paid for by taxation. It is estimated that the total public debt, federal, state and local, in the United States amounts to $45,000,000,000 or $46,000,000,000. Reducing the cost of public improvements by making issuance of bonds cheaper is a temptation which no municipal, state or national government can withstand. All public improvements, and costs of all wars have to be met out of current production and current income, and instead of issuing tax exempt bonds, the government should tax the concentrated wealth and the natural resources of the country, and all government units should adopt a policy of "pay as you go."

3. Most public bonds are sold in large denominations so that the poor people can not afford to buy them and only the rich get the benefit of the exemption feature, while the common people have to pay the carrying charges on these debts.

4. In spite of the fact that the burden of debt, public and private, but particularly private, is breaking the American people, while concentration of wealth is continuing it is unfortunate that there are but few American citizens whose patriotism is deep enough to prevent them from evading payment of taxes through investing in tax exempt public bonds, if they have an opportunity to do so.

5. The exemption of public bonds from taxation nullifies the progressive feature of the income tax. If the owner of the public bonds has a net income of $10,000 and he gets 3 1-2 per cent on his tax exempt bonds, this is equivalent to 3.98 per cent on his investment, by comparison with the return if he bought taxable bonds, while if the owner's net income is $500,000, a 3 1-2 per cent tax exempt bond is as good as 12.07 per cent return from taxable securities.

6, Being obliged to pay market prices for credit would prevent the federal, state and local governments from undertaking many socialistic or unwise experiments in municipal and federal undertakings. The plea of most advocates of such experiments is that the government can do it cheaper, because it gets its money cheaper, but in the long run the consumers have to pay the bill in higher tax rates.

7. Low interest rates increase speculative enterprises and encourage speculating. Despite the fact that the Federal Farm Loan Board has loaned farmers close to one-half billion dollars at a low rate of interest, farmers are in the worst condition in their history today. The Farm Loan Board was able to lend money at low interest rates because their bonds are tax exempt, but it encouraged extensive land speculation by farmers and so injured the farmers themselves.—Copright 1923.

LATE TELEGRAPH NEWS

Kansas City, Mo., June 28—Here's a hint for young couples who think Dan J. Cupid can only be wooed with gold.

Ernest Calderwood, 22, and Miss Faye Willis, 21, married here recently, are now on their honeymoon—and it's not costing them any railroad fare. The couple is on a walking trip to the Pacific coast.

Wild flowers are blooming they told dubious witnesses, and the scenery is fine, and anyway, the slower the trip is made, the longer the honeymoon.

The couple, married by Daniel E. Mason, county clerk who is a "reverend" on Sundays, said they expected to walk thirty miles per day.

Kansas City, Mo., June 28—The first daylight Masonic lodge in Missouri has been founded here.

It is the Cecile Daylight lodge, and it is located at Ninth and Harrison streets. It will meet only in the daytime, and is composed mostly of members of the theatrical profession and auxiliary organizations, whose work prevents them from attending afternoon or night lodge meetings.

Kansas City, Mo., June 28—Motor car accidents took a toll of 29 lives in greater Kansas City the first five months of this year.

Fourteen of the victims were occupants of cars in crashes. Thirteen were pedestrians who were run down. Two were hit by autos as they stood in the street awaiting a street car. Four of the number were children.

Springfield, Mo., June 28—An innovation in local educational circles is planned by the state teachers' college here. A motion picture camera has been obtained by the institution, and all interesting events here will be filmed. It is planned to take about 50,000 feet of film a year.

Kansas City, Mo., June 28—All unknowingly, Henry Sivewright incurred the wrath of court officials and attorneys in a hold-up trial here by talking too much.

Sivewright, jury foreman, was asked by Judge Nelson E. Johnson how the jury stood on the case. The court warned the foreman to give the vote, but not to say how it was. Sivewrigth misunderstood.

"The count is eleven to one for conviction," he blurted out.

As a result a new jury had to be selected, and the trial gone through with again.

Kansas City, Mo., June 29—It was mighty hot that night. Upper house alderman were about to "burn up" but because of lady members, they had to suffer. Margaret Shephard, one of the two women members, watched her male colleagues squirm and fret in their seats a while and then incurred the eternal gratitude of the "men folks" by suggesting that the aldermen remove their coats.

They did, and "a nice time was had by all."

Roasts the Carnival Held Here Last Week

Several from here attended the carnival in Maryville last week and report it as being rotten—just a rough neck, gambling outfit, but Maryville is after the money and lets any old thing in. The officers had better clean their own skirts before sending out instructions to other towns as to what they can and what they can't do. The recent Jubilee in Hopkins about which such a fuss was made by Maryville officers, was heavenly in comparison to the carnival at Maryville.—From Good Hope Correspondent in the Hopkins Journal.

J. W. Corneli and Fred Auffert motored to St. Joseph on business today.

Mrs. W. L. McLaughlin went to Bolckow this morning for a few day's visit with friends and relatives.

Child-birth

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers!

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., P.A 46, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

HELP FOR GIRLS WHO WORK

Mrs. Lodic Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her

Tyrone, Pa.—"A friend told my husband how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped his wife, so my husband bought me a bottle because I was so run-down, had a nervous weakness, no strength in my body and pains in my left side so bad that I could hardly do my work. Before I was married I used to work in the factory, and I had pains just the same then as I have had since I have done my housework. I would not be without a bottle in the house now. It has stopped the pains all right and I have found out that it is a wonderful body builder, as it has made me well and strong. It is going to be the 'old reliable' with me hereafter, and I am always willing to tell other women how it has helped me. You can use this letter as you wish as I can honestly say that my words are true."—Mrs. M. LODIC, R.F.D. No. 4, Box 40, Tyrone, Pa.

Letters like this bring out the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They tell of the relief from such pains and ailments after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Maynor Is Recovering From Operation

(Columbia Missourian)

Major Eugène Maynor, former student in the School of Journalism, and captain of Battery B of the National Guard, is recovering from an operation at the United States Veterans Hospital in St. Louis.

The operation was performed two weeks ago. It disclosed an abcess around a piece of shrapnel lodged in his foot. Twenty-five pieces of shell were removed in the operation. These foreign bodies resulted in blood poisoning, making his condition very critical.

Major Maynor expects to leave the hospital about July 15 to come to Columbia for a visit.

During the World War, Major Maynor served with the air forces in France. In the battle of Chateau Thierry his airplane was shot down and the pilot with him was killed.

After the war Maynor attended the School of Journalism here. He left to become director of athletics at the State Teachers College at Maryville. He resigned there a month ago, but his resignotion was not accepted. He will not return there as he has just accepted a position with the sport department of the St. Louis Star beginning August 15.

DON'T RISK NEGLECT.

Don't neglect a constant backache, sharp, darting pains or urinary disorders. The danger of dropsy or Bright's disease is too serious to ignore. Use Doan's Kidney Pills as have your friends and neighbors. A Maryville case.

J. N. Bryan, retired farmer, 222 11th St., says: "I was having trouble with my kidneys and back. I had an intense soreness through the small of my back which caused great pain when I tried to bend or straighten quickly. My kindeys acted too frequently. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and I started to use them. I found great relief from the start and after using Doan's a while I was cured of the trouble. It has been some time since I have needed to use Doan's Kidney Pills so I know the benefit they gave me is lasting." (Statement given June 16, 1916).

On March 31, 1920, Mr. Bryan said: "Since I used Doan's Kidney Pills I have had no return of the trouble. I am glad to say Doan's permanently cured me and I wish to confirm my former statement."

Farm Co-ops Combine at Sioux City Market.

A hopeful trend in the complicated affairs of farm organization is indicated by the decision of the board of directors of the Nebraska Farmers' Union and the National Livestock Producers' Association to combine forces in the marketing of livestock at the Sioux City, Iowa, market, and operate only one live stock commission company.

The belief that it would be to the best interest of the live stock producers in the Sioux City territory to have their co-operative live stock commission company connected with the National Live Stock Producers' Association is stated by directors of the Farmers' Union as the reason for combining forces. Under the terms of the agreement, which were proposed by Pres. John G. Brown, of the National Live Stock Producers' Association, the Farmers' Union Commission Company will retain its identity and will be managed by a committee of three, two of whom will be appointed by directors of the Nebraska Farmers' Union and one by the National Live Stock Producers' Association until January 1, 1924, when the producer members of the Farmers' Union Livestock Commission Company of Sioux City will convene for the purpose of electing directors and perfecting their own organization to operate their commission agency in co-operation with the National Livestock Producers' Association. The commission company at Sioux City will contribute 25c a car on all livestock which it sells, to the support of the National Live Stock Producers' Association and members of any state-wide organization will be eligible to membership in the Sioux City company without further fee.

Death of Lambs From Stomach Worms Prevented by Blue Stone Treatment.

The season when many lambs may die or be seriously injured by stomach worms will soon be here. When the hot weather of July, August, and September comes, lambs often do not continue to thrive; and on pastures that have been heavily grazed by sheep for some time, the lack of thrift is often caused by lambs becoming infected with stomach worms. The blue stone treatment recommended by the Missouri Experiment Station and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, during the last two or three years is a very effective remedy for the stomach worms.

The lambs are drenched with a solution of blue stone, or copper sulphate, made by dissolving two ounces of pulverized blue stone in one pint of hot water and then diluting to the proper strength by adding one gallon of cold water. The dose is as follows: Lambs three months old, three-fourths of an ounce; lambs six months old, one and one-half ounces; lambs twelve months old, two and one-half ounces; full grown sheep, three and one-half ounces.

The lambs are kept off feed and water several hours before giving the treatment so that the fourth stomach where the worms are found will be as nearly empty as possible; and the sheep are not allowed to have water for twelve to eighteen hours after the treatment is administered.

The drench is administered by means of a stomach tube so as to prevent any of the liquid from getting into the lungs, which might occur in drenching with a bottle.

Bulletins giving the details of the treatment may be obtained at the Farm Bureau office.

Code Body Nears Finish of Its Work

Jefferson City, June 28—With all reports through the committee of the whole, one now under consideration by the convention and two short ones yet to be considered, members of the constitutional convention are forecasting an early adjournment, possibly by Aug. 1. Three reports have gone to engrossment, those of the bill of rights, suffrage and election and the initiative and referendum.

The reports on legislation, education and public health and welfare have been completed by the committee on phraseology and arrangements, while the committee still has under consideration the reports on state officers and salaries, corporations, counties, cities and towns, and taxation.

The close of the week saw the report of the committee of judiciary once more before the convention and members were hopeful for its completion before adjournment Friday noon. It was not completed, however, and will be up for consideration again this week.
